

JACK WALLACE: 1929-2003

Jack was born in Church, Accrington, Lancashire in 1929 to Charles Wallace and Isabella Salt. He is the youngest of the 5 siblings. They were: Albert, William, Florence and Louie.

Jack suffered from mild brain damage after an accident where he fell into the Canal as a child. This had a detrimental effect on his life thereafter. After Bella passed away in 1978, Jack found it difficult to cope on his own and in later life was diagnosed with diabetes. The last period of his life was spent in old people's homes before he passed away in 2003 in Oswaldtwistle, Lancashire.
