

LOUIE WALLACE: 1922-1946

Aunt

Louie was born in Church, Accrington, Lancashire. She was the 4th child of Charles Wallace and Isabella Salt. She had 4 siblings: Albert, William, Florence and Jack.

Louie died suddenly close to her 24th birthday during an epileptic fit. She is buried at Dill Hall cemetery near Clayton Le Moors, Lancashire.

FamilyTree

Photo: Hyndburn Greenway at Church, Accrington, Lancashire

In Loving Memory of

Louie,

The beloved daughter of Charles and Isabella Wallace;

Who departed this life October 12th, 1946

In her 24th year;

And was interred at

Church and Clayton-le-Moors Cemetery,

on the 15th inst.

*Dear child thou art gone,
We wished thee longer stay,
But death has made us mourn
By taking thee away;
So sudden was the stroke
So heavily it fell,
Such tender ties it broke,
Dear child, farewell.*

"It was God's will, not ours."

82 Church Street, Church.

Mr. & Mrs. Wallace & family desire to thank all relatives and friends for kind expressions of sympathy and floral tokens received during their sad bereavement.

Photo: Leeds & Liverpool Canal at Church Kirk bridge, Lancashire, looking towards the area known as Tomknitter bridge.